CIVIL DEFENCE DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR NO.573/43.

Subject:- Lighting Restrictions.

Sir,

I am directed to say that General Headquarters have issued to Armies the following modifications in vehicle Lighting Restrictions throughout the Red Area with immediate effect:-

(a) All vehicles moving in open country, or through small towns where the density of traffic is not great, may proceed with full headlights. Vehicles other than "through" vehicle moving in such areas will conform with the instructions given in paragraph (b) below.

(b) On entering a "Built-up" area where traffic density is high, e.g. CALCUTTA, vehicles must conform to the vehicle Lighting Restrictions in force in that area.

(c) When halted, all vehicles will immediately reduce lights to the minimum necessary for the safety of on-coming traffic, and obtainable from the lighting system fitted to each particular type of vehicle.

(d) These relaxations will apply to operational areas atk the discretion of the local Area Commander.

2. These modifications do not in any way affect the restrictions at present in force for towns in the Red Area.
